

Sales quarter by quarter. This is their historical growth. This is why there has been so much excitement.

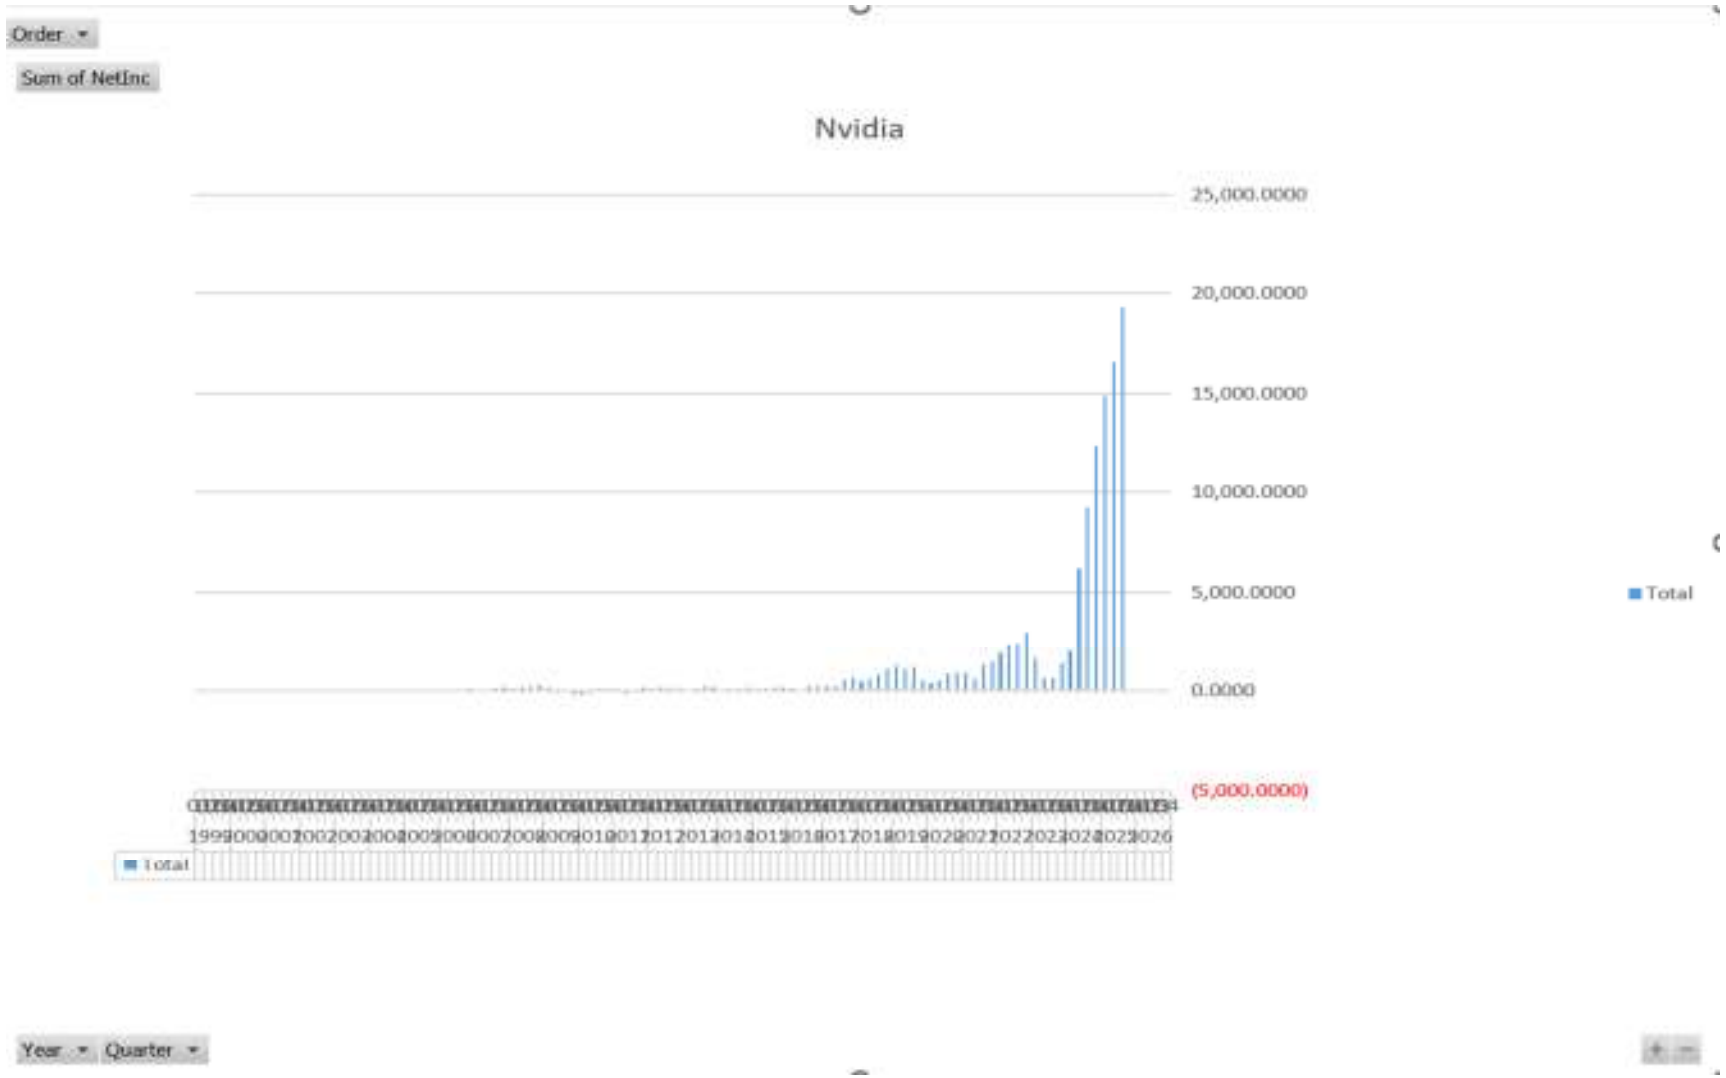

This is the same sales from the previous page, but grouped by their fiscal year. You can see that only three quarter of the current year, blows away all four quarters of the prior year.

Their gross margin is outstanding and growing on a quarterly by quarter basis. More than 70%!!

Their earning are trending excellently as well.

Their ability to bring sales to the bottom line is their return on sales. This is the net income they get out of every sales dollar. It is currently a whopping 55%! Again, it is trending excellently.
